BRAVE Horace Greeley! The more we learn of his character the more we admire him. The following letter, "a gem of purest ray serene," rings like the metal of true moral courage:

New York, June 27, 1872.

FRIEND LAUMAN—Heceived yours of the 25th, inst. I have all my life been doing what people called vastly foolish, impolitic acts; and I did not dispute their judgment. I only said that what I did seemed to me the right thing. If I should die before the election, or be beaten therein, please testify for me that I do not regret having braved public opinion when I thought it wrong, and knew it to be merciless.

[Signed] HORACE GREELEY.

A MODEST WORD. The Shawneetown 'Mercury' is determined to be not pleased with this paper. We are consequently almost persuaded to become reckless and swing into the circle of the followers of Thurman, the Democratic angel of the resurrection, or of Pendleton, the dainty Bourbon of the pork-killing metropolis of Ohio. The 'Mercury' cruelly says:

In the same article the 'Bulletin' proposes to support the Administration of Grant if he will run the Government in accordance with the peculiar views of the 'Bulletin'.

Now did it ever occur to the editor of the 'Bulletin', that it was a matter of no concern to the President whether the 'Bulletin' supported his Administration or not.

ported his Administration or not.

There is not much to admire in the concession of the 'Bulletin' after all, for it is a fact patent to every observing man that the Democratic party is dead beyond resurrection; and its "is" and "buts" are but mere child's play.

If the 'Bulletin' intends to accept the situation and come into the party of liberty and progress, it must come as a meek and lowly follower in the path of truth and virtue, with none of the slime of the defunct party adhering to its garments.

Our friend of the 'Mercury' is assured we are decidedly of the opinion that the president cannot do without the support of Tas Butteres; but there is no doubt THE BULLETIN can do without the support of the president. We say this modestly. We are not in the habit or boasting. We dislike a man who boasts. But it is a fact, that the time is not far distant in the future when the support of THE BULLETIN will be necessary to any administration of the government. Indeed, we have no doubt THE BULLETIN will soon reign a potent power in the world, with no rival near its throne. We blush as we thus blow our own trumpet; but plead in extenuation of our lack of bashfulness, that the impertinent question of the 'Mercury' compelled us to this assertion of our modest merit.

The 'Murcury' further informs us that we must be meek and lowly when we get into the Radical party. We will; but we do not know that we shall allow the ' Mercury' to remain in the party. We have not forgotten that the editor of that paper was one of the Breckenridge men of 1860, and that he is still infected with the old political views. This will never do. We shall not permit any person to remain in Republican party who is not, like ourself, above political suspicion -who is not pure and devoted to those grand principles of the party which tower into the region of unselfish patriotism, and has stamped the Republic with the seal of Progress. The 'Mercury' man, not being properly stamped, must take a back seat. This is our sorrowful but calm decision; and, when THE BULLETIN decides, to what other power, greater than it, can an appeal be taken!
